GATHERING SONG

"Shine, Jesus, Shine"

words and music, Graham Kendrick (b. 1950)

Lord, the light of your love is shining; in the midst of the darkness, shining.
Jesus, Light of the world, shine upon us, set us free by the truth you now bring us;
Shine on me, shine on me!

Refrain: Shine, Jesus, shine! Fill this land with the Father's glory!
Blaze, Spirit, blaze! Set our hearts on fire!
Flow, river, flow! Flood the nations with grace and mercy!
Send forth your word, Lord, and let there be light!

Lord, I come to your awesome presence from the shadows into your radiance.
By the blood I may enter your brightness; search me, try me, consume all my darkness;
Shine on me, shine on me! (Refrain)

As we gaze on your kingly brightness, so our faces display your likeness:
Ever changing from glory to glory, mirrored here, may our lives tell your story.
Shine on me, shine on me! (Refrain)

Glory, glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory.
Lord God, heavenly King, God our Father,

Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father.

You take away the sins of the world,
You take away the sins of the world,
Have mercy on us.

For you, God, alone are the Holy One,
You alone, the Lord who we adore,
You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
With the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Please be seated.

THE GOSPEL

John 11: 32-44, Jesus Raises Lazarus to Life

Gospeller A reading from the Gospel of John.

WHEN Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Gospeller Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

SONG IN RESPONSE

"Did you Feel the Mountains Tremble?"

words and music, Martin Smith (b. 1970)

Did you feel the mountains tremble?

Did you hear the oceans roar

When the people rose to sing of Jesus Christ the risen one?

Did you feel the people tremble?

Did you hear the singers roar

When the lost began to sing of Jesus Christ the saving one?

And we can see that God you're moving, a mighty river through the nations,

When young and old return to Jesus.

Fling wide your heavenly gates,

Prepare the way of the risen Lord!

Refrain: Open up the doors and let the music play!

Let the streets resound with singing!

Songs that bring your hope, and songs that bring your joy!

Dancers who dance upon injustice!

Did you feel the darkness tremble,

When all the saints join in one song,

And all the streams flow as one river, to wash away our brokenness?

And we can see that God you're moving, a time of Jubilee is coming,

When young and old will turn to Jesus.

Fling wide your heavenly gates,

Prepare the way of the risen Lord! (Refrain)

WE offer you praise and hearts lifted high, O God, whose light enlightens every human being, and whose love offers to all hope for new life. And so with the whole realm of nature around us, with earth, sea, and sky, with the light of sun and stars, with angels of light, with saints of heaven and earth, we join in the song of your unending greatness:

SANCTUS

music, John-Luke Addison (b. 1989)

Holy, holy, holy, holy,
Heav'n and earth are full, are full of your glory, Lord God Almighty.
Holy, holy, holy, holy,
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord God Almighty.
Hosanna in the highest! Hosanna in the highest!

We thank you, loving God, because, when we turned away, you sent Jesus, your Son. He gave his life for us on the cross and shows us the way to live. Send your Holy Spirit that these gifts of bread and wine may be for us Christ's body and his blood. On the night before he died, when darkness had fallen, Jesus took bread. He gave thanks, broke it, and shared it with his disciples, saying: "This is my body, given for you. Do this to remember me." After they had eaten, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and shared it with his disciples, saying: "This is my blood, poured out for you and for many, for the forgiveness of sins. Do this to remember me."

So God, with this bread and this cup we celebrate his love, his death, his risen life. As you feed us with these gifts, send your Holy Spirit, and change us more and more to be like Jesus our Savior. Help us, God, to love one another, as we look forward to that day when suffering is ended, and all creation is gathered in your loving arms. And now with Bartholomew and all your saints we give you glory, through Jesus Christ, in the strength of the Spirit, today and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

THE LORD'S PRAYER

music, John-Luke Addison (b. 1989)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be your name,
Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heav'n.
Give us today our daily bread, forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
And save us from times of trial, deliver us from all evil.
For the kingdom, pow'r, and glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Presider Gracious God, we come to your table.

People Nourish us with the bread of life and the cup of heaven.

Presider The gifts of God for the people of God.

THIS is the table, not of the Church, but of God. It is made ready for those of us who love God, and for those who want to love God more. So, come, those of us who have much faith, and those who have little; those of us who have been here often, and those who have not been here long; those of us who have tried to follow, and those who have failed. Come, because it is God who invites us; it is God's will that we should meet here.

Please be seated once you receive Communion.
